Dress the Turkey activity

PRESS DEMOCRAT STAFF

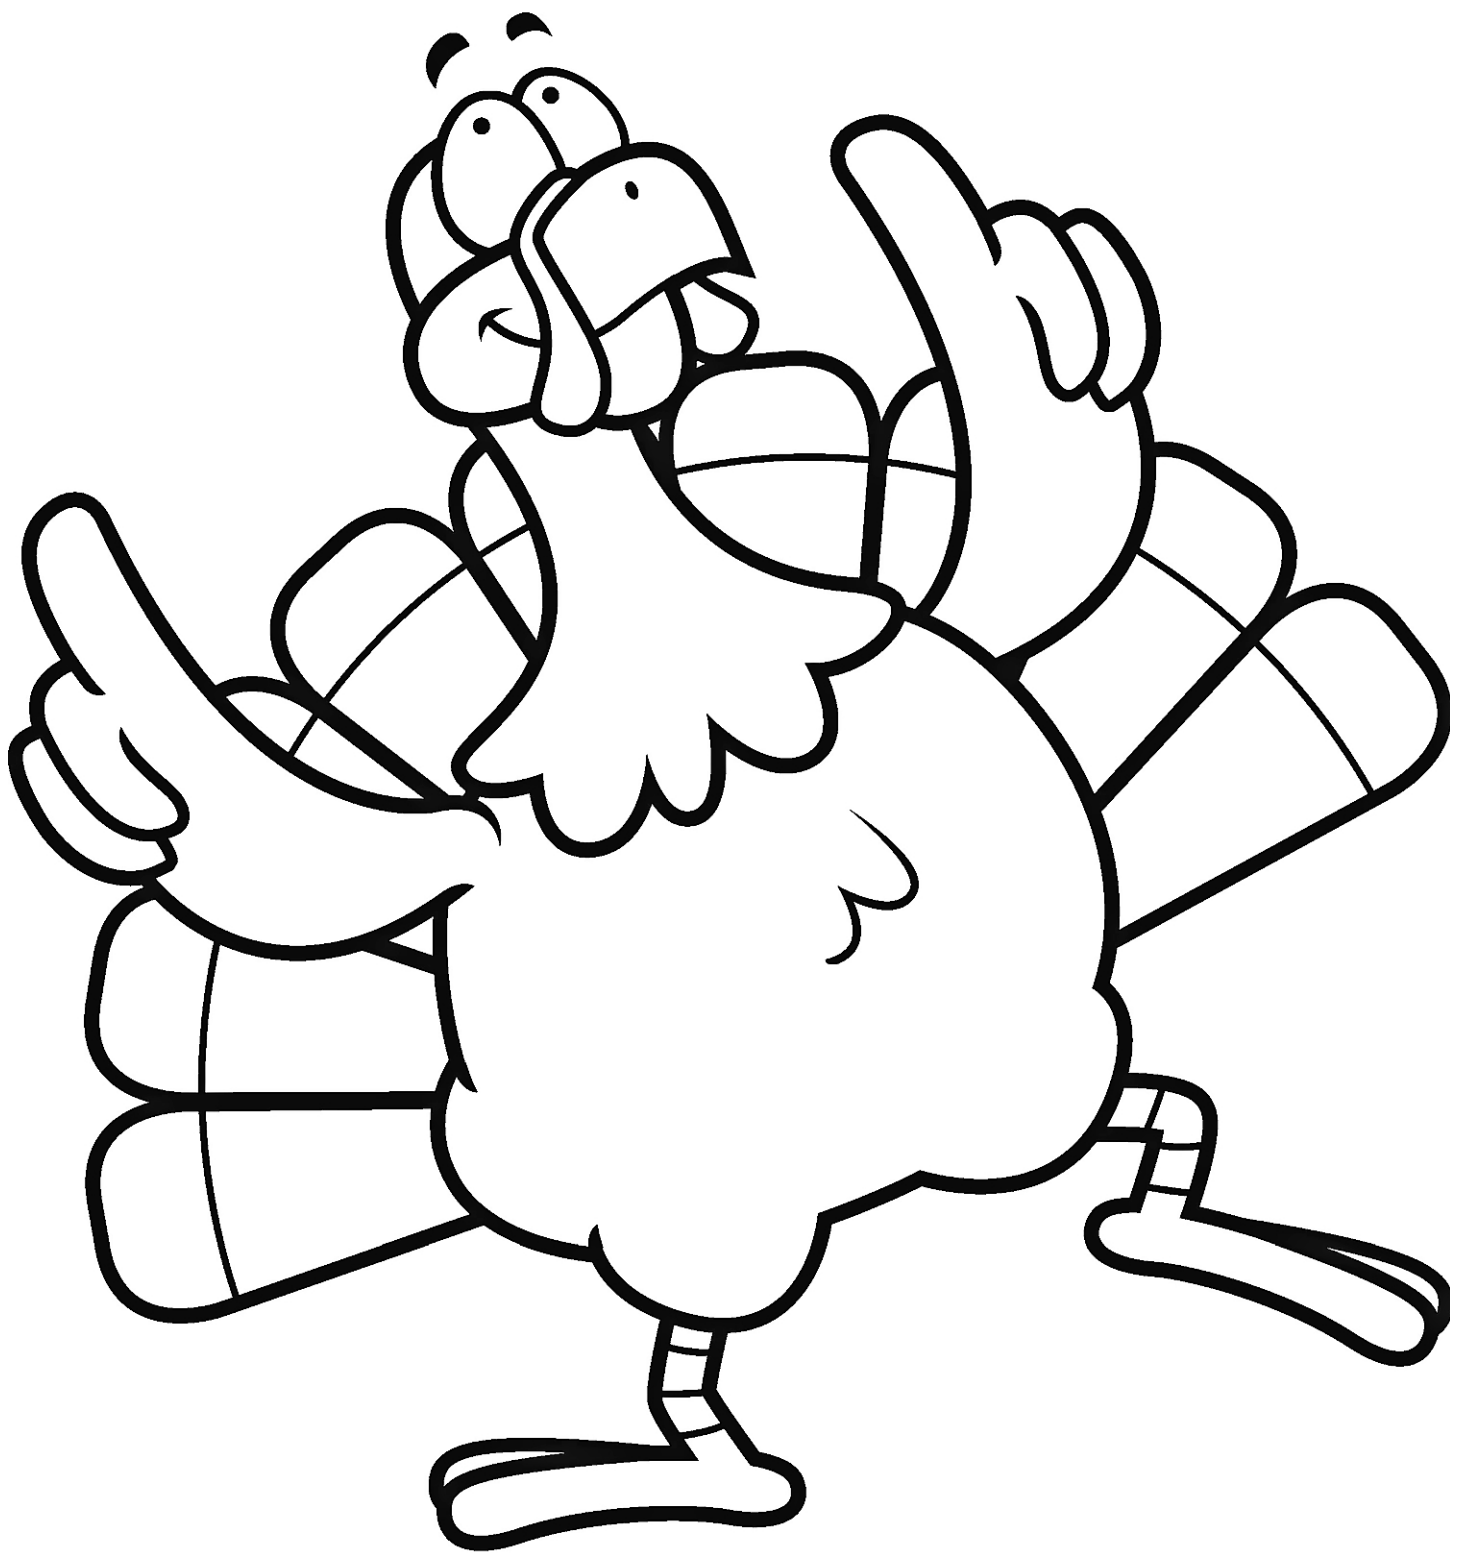

Thanksgiving is just around the corner, and The Press Democrat is getting into the holiday spirit.

Our Nov. 24 print edition will be brimming with content, from our Thanksgiving Day Gratitude section and a special section marking the 100th birthday of “Peanuts” creator Charles Schulz to the return of our Dress the Turkey activity.

While this year we won’t be holding a contest for the best turkey, we still invite you to paint, decorate and color your turkey and send us a photo. We’ll publish some of the turkey photos in our Thanksgiving Day newspaper on Thursday, Nov. 24. All entries will be published online at pressdemocrat.com.

This isn’t just for kids. We’re looking for people who are kids at heart, as well as crafty creatives, amateur artists and witty folks out there with a sense of fun.

To participate, download the turkey drawing at pressdemocrat.com/turkeyprint-out and print it or use the drawing supplied in the newspaper. Then jump in with your crayons, glue, pens and paint and enter your Dressed Turkey by Friday, Nov. 18, by submitting a photo of your entry online at pressdemocrat.com/turkey.

NEW PARADE E-EDITION!

November 13th will be the final print edition of Parade. But you can still get everything you love about Parade in an easy-to-read digital format.
